Nothing Gold Can Stay

- Robert Frost

*Transience

leaf
Nature's first green is gold,
सुनहरा
Her hardest hue to hold.
decrease
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
fallen leaf
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
Paradise Eden Garden human Being
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

Too many fall from great and good

For you to doubt the likelihood.

☆ Poet-Suggest

Die early and avoid the fate.

Or if predestined to die late

Make up your mind to die in state.

(Make the whole stock exchange your own!

If need be occupy a throne,

Where nobody can call you crone.

People Trust-

Some have relied on what they knew:

Others on simply being true

What worked for them might work for you.

No memory of having starved

Atones for later disregard

Or keeps the end from being hard.

The Onset

- Robert Frost

DSSSB (TGT) ENGLISH (Lit.)

Always the same when on a fated night
At last the gathered snow lets down as white
As may be in dark woods, and with a song
It shall not make again all winter long
Of hissing on the yet uncovered ground, death → indication

I almost stumble looking up and round,

As one who over taken by the end

Gives up his errand, and lets death descend

Upon him where he is, with nothing done

To evil, no important triumph won,

More than if life had never been begun.

DSSSB (TGT) ENGLISH (Lit.)

former - Example

Yet all the precedent is on my side:

I know that winter death has never tried

The earth but it has failed: the snow may heap

In long storms an undrifted four feet deep

As measured again maple, birch, and oak,

It cannot check the peeper's silver croak;

And I shall see the snow all go down hill

In water of a slender April rill

That flashes tail through last year's withered brake

And dead weeds like a disappearing snake.

Nothing will be left white but here a birch,

And there a clump of houses with a church.
