✓✓ I met a traveller from an antique land,
Who said- "Two vast and trunkless legs of stone
Stand in the desert.... Near them, on the sand,
Half sunk a shattered visage lies, whose frown,

Tell that its sculptor well those passions read
Which yet survive, stamped on these lifeless things,
The hand that mocked them, and the heart that fed;

And on the pedestal, these words appear:

My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings;

Look on my Works, ye Mighty, and despair!

Nothing beside remains. Round the decay

Of that colossal Wreck, boundless and bare

The lone and level sands stretch far away."

O world! O life! O time!

On whose last steps I climb,

trembling at that where I had stood before;

When will return the glory of your prime?

Out of the day and night

A joy has taken flight;

Fresh spring, and summer and winter hoar.

Move my faint heart with grief, but with delight

No more—Oh, never more!
